Social Media Guidelines:

Griffin Pond Animal Shelter recognizes that many of its staff and volunteers use social media such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc. Use of social media becomes a problem if it:

- Interferes with a volunteer's work
- Is used to harass or discriminate against workers, volunteers or our clients
- Creates a hostile work environment
- Divulges confidential information about our business or our clients
- Harms the goodwill and reputation of GPAS

Staff and volunteers are encouraged to use social media within the following guidelines. Violation of this policy may lead to discipline up to and including the immediate termination of volunteering. If you are uncertain about the appropriateness of a social media posting, check with the volunteer manager or a GPAS manager.

- Do not post any comment or picture involving an employee, volunteer, or client of GPAS without their express consent.
- Do not post any pictures of animals who are unavailable, still on stray period, walking through the door to be surrendered, etc.
- Only share and repost photographs and descriptions from our Petfinder, Petango, and Facebook pages.
- If you post any comment about GPAS, you must clearly and conspicuously state that you are posting in your own individual capacity and that the views posted are yours alone and do not represent the views of our company.
- Unless given written consent, you may not use the GPAS logo or any company material in your posts.
- Do not link to the GPAS website or post any company material on a social media site without specific permission from a member of the GPAS leadership team.
- Don't forget that you are responsible for what you write or present on social media, you can be sued by other volunteers, employees or any individual that views your social media posts as defamatory, harassing, libelous or creating a hostile work environment.
- All company policies that regulate volunteer conduct apply to social media activity including, but not limited to, policies related to illegal harassment, code of conduct, nondiscrimination and protecting confidential and/or proprietary information.

I, _____, have read the social media guidelines of the Griffin Pond Animal Shelter. I understand what is expected of me and will uphold these guidelines.
